QUESTION

Will the Minister for Endowments be pleased to state:

- (a) the amount of funds sanctioned towards the development of Gandhi Kshetram and Devuni Kadapa from Tirumala Tirupati Devasthanam (T.T.D.) and the criteria on which the funds had been sanctioned;
- (b) whether the funds will be allocated under the same criteria towards the development of various Temples in Telangana Region; and
- (c) the district-wise details of the Tirumala Tirupati Devasthanams funds spent for the development of various Temples, Kalyana Mandapas and on other developmental activities during the last three years together with the places where they had been spent?

ANSWER

- (a) An amount of Rs. 19.93 crores & Rs.8.35 lakhs have been sanctioned for development of Sri Anjaneyaswamy Temple at Gandhi Kshetram and Sri Venkateswara Swamy Temple at Devuni Kadapa respectively, keeping in view of their historical and religious importance.
- (b) Sri Anjaneya Swmay Temple at Gandhi Kshetram and Sri Venkateswara Swamy Temple at Devuni Kadapa were taken over by the Tirumala Tirupati Devasthanams. As such the developmental works of the said temples are being taken up by the Tirumala Tirupati Devasthanams. The same criteria will not be applicable for other temples which are not under the control of Tirumala Tirupati Devasthanams.
- (c) A statement is laid on the table of the House.
